Greetings Beloved! Happy New Year!

Happy New Year! I am bursting with excitement about the possibilities and opportunities this new year brings. Like me, you have an opportunity to do great things...be a better person...and bless others this year. Forget about those things that may not have gone quite right in 2008...leave them behind. Purpose in your heart to do bigger and better things in 2009. It's really up to you...to be the very best YOU that you can be. Put away the excuses. Put away the attitudes. Put on the fruit of the spirit— love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. Strive to be a better you. Be fit and fine in 2009. What does that mean? It means that your spiritual, physical, and emotional health should be priority this year. Do the things you need to do to feed your spirit, grow your mind and exercise your body. Remember...God loves you and so do I.
